4th December 2024

Dear Parents,

I am writing to let you know that we have successfully sorted Mrs Hancock's maternity leave cover from January.

As I have said previously, Mrs Clark and Miss Boardman will cover the class in December after Mrs Hancock leaves on Friday.

From January, Mrs Fox will teach the class Monday to Wednesday and Mrs Jones will teach on Thursday and Friday. Both Mrs Fox and Mrs Jones have taught the children previously when they were in Year 1 whilst covering on supply and they have both taught other classes in school.

I really appreciate your patience whilst we confirmed these appointments. It has been challenging for us, but we also wanted to make sure we got the right teachers to support the children in their teaching and learning. Mrs Hancock has met with both teachers and given them a thorough handover of the children. Miss Brazier and Mrs Bellapianta will still support the children for some consistency.

I am sure you will soon get to know both teachers when they join us in January.

Thank you again for your understanding.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs L Davison
